There are approximately 15 to 20 scholarships awarded annually. Following the wishes of each fund's donor, the scholarships have different criteria. Some are school-specific, some are need-based, some require PHPC involvement and leadership, etc. Please follow the instructions in the box below, and the Scholarship Committee will consider you for each award for which you qualify. A complete list of scholarships, and the criteria for each, can be found at phpc.org/foundation.

Checklist for Applying

- ✓ This completed cover sheet.
- ✓ Your most current transcript.
- ✓ A personal essay of approximately 600 words that introduces you to the Scholarship Committee and references as many of the following topics as are applicable: your involvement in PHPC, ways in which the church has been important in your development to this point, your commitment to mission and service through the church and in the community, and your plans for college and beyond.
- ✓ If you wish to be considered for the Jonathan Roorda Scholarship, there is an additional requirement: An essay of 300-400 words describing what excites you about learning and what future benefits you see growing from that excitement. Label it "Roorda supplemental essay."
- ✓ Some of the scholarships have a financial need component. If you wish to be considered for those, please attach the completed Abbreviated Statement of Financial Need. Note that the Church's Financial Officer is the only person who will see this completed form.

All materials are to be sent to the PHPC Financial Officer via mail, email ljennings@phpc.org, or hand-delivery by Thursday, February 20, 2020. We are unable to consider incomplete applications or those received after this date.
